

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOURTH DEGREE SCHOLARSHIP TRUST FUND

SPONSORED BY
FATHER JOHN T. BUTLER ASSEMBLY #980
AND
POCONO MOUNTAIN ASSEMBLY #981

---

PURPOSE

The sponsoring Assemblies, located in Monroe County, Pennsylvania, in an effort to render assistance to Catholic young men and women with their first year college or university tuition, will award two scholarships in the forthcoming year.

Scholarships are offered to any Catholic young man or women who will graduate from high school either public or parochial, in the spring of the year 2012. Two scholarships valued at $1,000.00 each will be awarded.

Each candidate must have made application for entrance to a college or University, school of nursing or trade school the United States of America. Each candidate must be approved by the Scholarship Committee of the Knights of Columbus.

Candidates must be practicing Catholics as verified by the Pastor of their parish. This application must be filed with the scholarship Committee no later than April 10, 2012.

PROCEDURE

1. Candidate must take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). The date of testing can be obtained from the School Guidance Counselor.
2. The following must be submitted with the application:
  - a) A complete copy of your SAT scores;
  - b) A transcript of your first three years in High School;
  - c) A brief student biography;
  - d) A copy of your letter of acceptance from the school of your choice;
  - e) A copy of the previous year's income tax return for parents or guardians of the applicant; this tax return will remain completely confidential.
3. The completed application with the required attachments must be mailed no later than April 10, 2012 to:
